Non-GAAP Financial Measures Disclosure

To supplement our financial information, which is prepared and presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America, or GAAP, we use the following non-GAAP financial measures: Adjusted EBITDA; Non-GAAP Costs and Operating Expenses; Delivery business model change impact on Revenue; Mobility business model change impact on Revenue; Delivery business model change impact on Cost of Revenue; Mobility business model change impact on Cost of Revenue; Free Cash Flow; as well as revenue growth rates in constant currency. The presentation of this financial information is not intended to be considered in isolation or as a substitute for, or superior to, the financial information prepared and presented in accordance with GAAP. We use these non-GAAP financial measures for financial and operational decision-making and as a means to evaluate period-to-period comparisons.

We believe that these non-GAAP financial measures provide meaningful supplemental information regarding our performance by excluding certain items that may not be indicative of our recurring core business operating results.

We believe that both management and investors benefit from referring to these non-GAAP financial measures in assessing our performance and when planning, forecasting, and analyzing future periods. These non-GAAP financial measures also facilitate management's internal comparisons to our historical performance. We believe these non-GAAP financial measures are useful to investors both because (1) they allow for greater transparency with respect to key metrics used by management in its financial and operational decision-making and (2) they are used by our institutional investors and the analyst community to help them analyze the health of our business.

There are a number of limitations related to the use of non-GAAP financial measures. In light of these limitations we provide specific information regarding the GAAP amounts excluded from these non-GAAP financial measures and evaluating these non-GAAP financial measures together with their relevant financial measures in accordance with GAAP.

For more information on these non-GAAP financial measures, please see the section titled "Non-GAAP Reconciliations" included at the end of this deck.

In regards to forward looking non-GAAP guidance provided on our Q4 2023 earnings release and call, we are not able to reconcile the forward-looking non-GAAP Adjusted EBITDA measure to the closest corresponding GAAP measure without unreasonable efforts because we are unable to predict the ultimate outcome of certain significant items. These items include, but are not limited to, significant legal settlements, unrealized gains and losses on equity investments, tax and regulatory reserve changes, restructuring costs and acquisition and financing related impacts.

Business model changes since Q1'20 have triggered changes in classification of certain costs, including payments to drivers or couriers and promotions to platform users or earners.

The Business Model Change Impact line item presented on this page represents the net benefit to revenue for each of the periods presented as a result of the changes.

Impact on Revenue Margin*	5.9%	5.5%	4.6%	3.1%	3.7%

The net benefits are primarily driven by the classification of certain payments and incentives as cost of revenue, partially offset by the classification of certain sales and marketing costs as contra revenue.

In aggregate, the changes have no real economic change to operating income or Adjusted EBITDA.

Note 1: The first business model change began in Q1'20 in certain markets and expanded to additional markets over time. The changes resulted in us being the principal of providing delivery services where certain courier payments and incentives are classified as cost of revenue and end-user promotions are recorded in contra revenue. The second business model change began in Q1'22 which impacted our Mobility business in the UK. The model change resulted in us being the principal for providing transportation services where certain driver payments and incentives are classified as cost of revenue and end-user promotions are recorded in contra revenue. The third business model change began in Q2'23 in certain markets and expanded to additional markets. The changes resulted in end-users becoming our customers whereby incentive costs for customers are recorded in contra revenue instead of sales and marketing expense.
